

Employee of the Month – Ethan Johnson

This month, we're excited to recognize Ethan Johnson, Jr. Supply Technician at Jesse Brown VAMC, as our Employee of the Month. Ethan's dedication, attention to detail, and proactive approach have made a real impact on the Supply Chain Management Department. His hard work helped the team achieve a "pass" status during audits for two years in a row, ensuring compliance and keeping operations running smoothly. He also took on a full reconciliation of seven supply distribution points, making sure inventory was accurate and available when needed. By working closely with nursing managers and staff, he's helped prevent critical shortages and improve supply tracking

Marvin Taylor – Capture Manager

We're excited to welcome Marvin Taylor, who brings over 30 years of experience in IT, program management, business development, and federal contracting. Marvin has worked with a range of federal clients, including the U.S. Army, HHS, DOT, USDA, and IRS, supporting everything from technology architecture to business development and capture management. His expertise will be a great addition to the team.

Ethan's problem-solving skills and teamwork have set a high standard for efficiency in the department. He's always ready to collaborate, find solutions, and keep things running seamlessly. On top of that, his positive attitude and dedication make him a great presence on the team. Congratulations, Ethan! Thanks for everything you do.

McKenna Ritto – Promoted to 3rd MAW Project Manager/MALS-16 Site Lead

McKenna has stepped into a new role as Project Manager for the 3rd Marine Aviation Wing and Site Lead for Marine Aviation Logistics Squadron 16. A Marine Corps veteran with four years of experience in military aviation flight, mechanics, and supply, McKenna first served as a CH-53E Super Stallion Helicopter Crew Chief before transitioning into aviation supply. Her leadership and expertise have made a huge impact, and we're thrilled to see her take on this expanded role.
